

This exchange of emails (please read from bottom up) regards the followup with Bishop Zurek's associate Msgr. Michael Colwell, who was present in the meeting at the Bishop's office with me when he asked me to write a "letter of apology," and who helped me to write it, but then stopped communicating with me once we had the very helpful phone conversation.

From: Rev. Frank Pavone (Desktop)
Sent: Monday, May 8, 2017 9:40 AM
To: Msgr. Michael Colwell
Subject: catching up

Hi, Michael,

Hope this finds you well... I have not heard anything from the bishop or from anyone else and was wondering if there was any update on my request.

Blessings and prayers,
Frank

From: Rev. Frank Pavone (Desktop)
Sent: Wednesday, March 29, 2017 10:05 PM
To: Msgr. Michael Colwell
Subject: FW: personal and confidential

Hi, Michael,

Did you want to discuss this with me to figure out the next steps?

Many thanks
Frank

From: Rev. Frank Pavone (Desktop)
Sent: Friday, March 24, 2017 1:02 PM
To: 'Msgr. Michael Colwell'
Subject: personal and confidential

Hi, Michael,

Hope this finds you well. Attached is a letter I wrote; I look forward to talking with you about it.

Regards,
Frank

From: Rev. Frank Pavone (Desktop)
Sent: Wednesday, March 22, 2017 8:04 AM

To: 'Msgr. Michael Colwell'
Subject: RE: conversation?

Hi, Michael,

I should be able later today to send you a draft of the letter of apology that we discussed.

Thanks for offering to work through it with me -- I've gotten the input of my team on this end and have worked to make it as simple and direct as possible.

Once you look it over, we can schedule a time to talk, or if you wish, just revise it via email.

Thanks again

Frank

From: Rev. Frank Pavone (Desktop)
Sent: Thursday, March 9, 2017 7:13 PM
To: Msgr. Michael Colwell
Subject: Re: conversation?

Thank you, Michael. I will call, then, around 11 AM your time. No problem regarding the bishop – in fact, it is my hope that our communication can precisely assist me in communicating with him. Thanks again.

Sent from my iPhone

On Mar 9, 2017, at 6:19 PM, Msgr. Michael Colwell wrote:

Frank, Yes, I would be able to speak with you as a follow up to our meeting. Of course the Bishop would be privy to what ever we might discuss. I have a funeral vigil tonight and a funeral tomorrow at 2:00pm. I would be able to receive a call from you tomorrow morning around 9:30 a.m. or around 11:00a.m. You may call me at my parish. Take care.

On Mar 9, 2017, at 1:15 PM, Rev. Frank Pavone (Desktop) wrote:

Michael,

Good to see you the other day.

I believe I would find it helpful if I could have a phone conversation with you to follow up on our meeting.

Would that be possible?

With thanks in advance,
Frank Pavone